A showcase of small practice architecture at its best
The 2026 Awards span an exciting range of architectural work, from residential alterations and additions through to new homes, heritage, commercial, community and public projects, unbuilt work and architectural innovation.

New for 2026 is the Early Career Award (sponsored by Co-architecture), recognising architects in the first five years of their registration and celebrating the next generation of small practice talent.

The Awards also include the Innovation & Contribution Award (sponsored by The University of Melbourne / Melbourne School of Design (MSD), recognising work that extends beyond building design to encompass advocacy, research, education, placemaking and other initiatives that make a meaningful contribution to architecture and the wider community.

In its second year, the Heritage Award (proudly supported by the National Trust of Australia (Victoria) & The Australian Council of National Trusts (ACNT)), saw an increase in entries, highlighting the breadth of expertise among ArchiTeam members. The projects demonstrate that heritage architecture is about more than restoration, showcasing innovative approaches to adaptive reuse, sustainability and sensitive contemporary design that gives existing buildings a new life and continued relevance.

Other partners include Colorbond, AWS, No1 Roofing, and Bookshop by Uro while the Australian Passivhaus Association continues to offer the Passivhaus Award to ArchiTeam members.

And the winners are...

ArchiTeam CEO Phoebe La Gerche-Wijsman said the Awards provide an important opportunity to recognise the enormous contribution small practice architects make to Australia's built environment.

"The ArchiTeam Awards are always a wonderful reminder of the breadth and quality of work being produced by small practices across Australia.

"Our members are doing extraordinary work, often with small teams, limited resources and incredibly close relationships with their clients. The result is architecture that is thoughtful, highly considered and deeply connected to people and place.

"We're incredibly proud to celebrate our finalists and can't wait to reveal the winners in November."

Tickets for the Awards Opening Night will support Foodbank Australia , with ticket payments donated to help fight hunger in Australia.

Join us on Wednesday 18 November to celebrate the finalists, discover the winners and raise a glass to the architects behind some of Australia's most thoughtful small-practice architecture.
